DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim 2 is objected to, as "said second" has not been provided adequate basis within the claim. Correction is required.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5,7-14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Montreuill et al.

Montreuill et al. discloses the claimed invention, including a buoyant cap having an upper portion configured for manipulation as is old and well known, and a portion therebeneath for sealing a tank. Buoyant urethane foam within the cap provides the buoyancy.

Re claim 7, one may call the upper portion of Montreuill et al. everything above

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 6, 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Montreuil et al. in view of Davidson.

Montreuil et al. Fails to disclose the incorporation of glass beads, as are known in the art as evidenced by Sweetman.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to construct the cap of Montreuil et al. from microsphere enhanced foam as taught by Sweetman.

Such a combination would have been desirable at the time the invention was made so as to provide for a rigid structural member which is also buoyant.
